in the swim

IMG Fashion has announced plans to give the Australian swimwear industry's global reputation a further boost with the launch of a new event on the international fashion stage. Swim Fashion Week at Sanctuary Cove will take place from February 25-28, and will be one of only two swimwear-focused fashion weeks in the world. In keeping with the heritage set by IMG Fashion's successful Mercedes-Benz Fashion Week Miami Swim, the new event will bring the southern hemisphere equivalent to Sanctuary Cove this year.

Approaching its sixth year this February, Good Vibrations Festival always delivers the highest quality beat-based party music from around the world, becoming a landmark on the Australian summer calendar. Putting the "festive" back into Festival with an unforgettable party atmosphere, this year Good Vibrations hits Parklands Showgrounds on February 21 and is headlined by the ultimate party boy himself, Fatboy Slim. Joining this stellar headliner are brilliant acts including The Presets, The Roots, Deadmau5, Sam Sparro, Roni Size Reprazent, Chromeo, Stanton Warriors, Potbelleez and many, many more, so don't miss out.

The recently relaunched Dracula's Cabaret Broadbeach is celebrating its $5 million refurbishment with a brilliant new show, Beasts of Burlesque. The crazy cast hosted a brave bunch of media and fans to introduce the new stage spectacular late last year. The verdict? Hilarious! If you haven't been to Draculas before, or for a long time, don't miss the opportunity. The cast is terrific, food delicious and the overall experience is utterly wicked.
